1. En introduction :

Instructions :

You are going to listen to a document which is entitled « Remarks by the President on Comprehensive Immigration Reform in El Paso, Texas (May, 2011) ”. This document fits into the notion “Space and exchange” which has been studied in the chapter “Immigration in the USA”.

2. Préparation à l’écoute :

Instructions :

– What comes to your mind when you read the title of this document ?
– You are going to listen to this document using a MP3 player. Feel free to write some words or phrases (in English or in French) you hear before filling the grid.
– There will be two different worksheets. One will correspond to the B1 level of the CEFR and the other to the B2 level, both meant to independent users and that you are to reach by the end of the school year.

Here are the descriptions :

<td>- I can guess the meaning of occasional unknown words from the context and understand sentence meaning if the topic discussed is familiar.</td>
<td>- I can understand standard spoken language, live or broadcast, on both familiar and unfamiliar topics normally encountered in personal, academic or vocational life.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
- I can understand straightforward factual information about common everyday or job-related topics, identifying both general messages and specific details, provided speech is clear and generally familiar accent is used.
- I can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters which occur regularly.
- I can understand the information content of the majority of recorded or broadcast audio material about familiar subjects spoken relatively slowly and clearly.

Only extreme background noise, unclear structure and/or idiomatic usage causes some problems.
- I can understand the main ideas of complex speech on both concrete and abstract topics delivered in a standard language including technical discussions in my field of specialisation.
- I can follow extended speech and complex lines of argument provided the topic is reasonably familiar, and the direction of the talk is clearly stated by the speaker.
- I can understand most radio documentaries and most other recorded or broadcast audio material delivered in standard language and can identify the speaker’s mood, tone, etc.

3. Première écoute - compréhension globale:

Instructions:

a) Switch your MP3 player on and listen to the document. Try to concentrate on these elements:

– Nature of the document.
– Number of speakers.
– Place (country, state, city).
– Main topic.
– Other sounds.
– Tone of the speaker(s).

b) What did you hear? Can you answer some of these questions?
Write key words on the board. Then, give the worksheets (B1 or B2) to the two groups.

c) Global comprehension:

SCRIPT DE L'ENREGISTREMENT

Remarks by the President on Comprehensive Immigration Reform in El Paso, Texas (May, 2011)

THE PRESIDENT: Hello, El Paso! (Applause.) Well, it is wonderful -- wonderful to be back with all of you in the Lone Star State. (Applause.) Everything is bigger in Texas. (Applause.) […] Today, there are an estimated 11 million undocumented immigrants here in the United States. Some crossed the border illegally. Others avoid immigration laws by overstaying their visas. Regardless of how they came, the overwhelming majority of these folks are just trying to earn a living and provide for their families. (Applause.) But we have to acknowledge they’ve broken the rules. They’ve cut in front of the line. And what is also true is that the presence of so many illegal immigrants makes a mockery of all those who are trying to immigrate legally.

Also, because undocumented immigrants live in the shadows, where they’re vulnerable to unscrupulous businesses that skirt taxes, and pay workers less than the minimum wage, or cut corners with health and safety laws, this puts companies who follow the rules, and Americans who rightly demand the minimum wage or overtime or just a safe place to work, it puts those businesses at a disadvantage.
